Developing a Growth Mindset Classroom

During this 6-hour workshop, educators will rethink what makes students successful. Leave this training ready to teach students and fellow staff members how to develop a growth mindset for life.

Activities focus on the following components:

- The science behind growth mindset
- What and how to teach about how the brain learns
- Growth mindset traits (effort, motivation, persistence, resilience, etc.)
- How to use Growth Mindset praise
- How to use quality feedback for improvement

Coming in February:

Targeting the Disability Achievement Gap

Higher-Level Thinking and Learning:

Closing the Gap for All Students
